PRE-MEDIATED TO MURDER WITH CONCOCTED CHARGES - JADHAV'S CASE STUDY

Y.V.KIRAN KUMAR

An Indian National Kulbhushan Jadhav was arrested by Pakistan on charges of espionage, sabotage and terrorism. Instead of accepting the several requests from India seeking consular access to Jadhav, Pakistan military court sentenced him to death. Under the situation, India approached the ICJ to assert its right of consular access. This paper study the Jadhav case and it also examine ICJ precedents relating to consular access in support of Indian urge.

Keywords: Jadhav Case, India and Pakistan Disputes, Consular Access, Vienna Treaty, ICJ, etc.
